

London 'Death' Fog Believed Near End Today

Rated as Worst in 6 Years

LONDON (UPI) — The sun bored through London's worst fog in six years today, ending 36 hours of transportation chaos and the fear that death might follow the sulphurous yellow fumes.

A minute-long gleam through London's sooty skies signalled easy breathing again for Londoners including those with heart or lung conditions who were warned the smog had killer qualities.

GLOOM CLOSED in again later but the Air Ministry said the suffocating pall which clamped down Wednesday night was apparently dispersed.

Relief came after morning newspapers warned Londoners in screaming headlines they faced the worst fog-smog blanket since 1952 when thousands died.

Mists caused the 200-ton Dutch coastal ship Minorca to run aground near Dover today. Some trains were running as much as two hours late and London Airport was still closed but the outlook was for clearing conditions.

THE FOG, NOW in its third day, also was bringing a mounting toll of automobile wrecks. An 10-year-old girl was killed and dozens of motorists were injured in the chaotic traffic conditions.

The daytime darkness also was used by criminals to good advantage. Derek Burgess, 27, escaped from a London prison by climbing a rope made out of socks. A purse snatcher robbed Mrs. Annie Pritchard of $10 and vanished a few yards away.

THE FOG BLANKETED 40,000 miles of roads throughout Britain, slowed railway traffic and halted almost all airline flights. Hundreds of highway accidents were reported and hundreds of cars were abandoned by the side of the road.

At Hampton Hill, 35 vehicles and a girl bicyclist were involved in one pileup. The girl was taken to the hospital with a broken leg. Thirteen damaged vehicles were abandoned on the spot.

At Eltham a driver wandered onto the wrong side of a dual lane highway and caused a bumper-to-bumper collision of 20 cars and trucks. Eighteen automobiles piled into the wreckage of a truck in Kent.

Wedding Plans Definitely Off, Joan Davis Says

Comedienne Joan Davis, who yesterday signed a complaint of assault and battery against her fiancé, Harvey "Budd" Stock, Jr., 35, said today that marriage plans for the couple "are definitely off."

Stock was arrested by Palm Springs police last night on a warrant issued by the district attorney's office after a complaint was filed by the actress-TV star following an argument that began in Los Angeles and ended in the yard of her home at 1400 Tamarisk at 2 a. m. yesterday.

Miss Davis said today that she was staying in bed with a sore neck and back as a result of the alleged beating by her fiancé, but added that she was not under doctor's care.

The argument started at the Bel Air home of the actress and continued during the trip to Palm Springs, she reported.

At the time of his arrest last night, Stock told police that he had not struck the actress, but had pushed her after she hit the windshield of her car with her purse. Stock was released on $250 bail and is scheduled to appear before Judge Eugene Thieriault in Palm Springs Judicial District Court next Tuesday for arraignment.

Nursing Home Fire Kills Eleven

GLEN ELLYN, Ill. — (UPI) — Fire today burned out the Glen Elyn Acres Nursing Home, where about 20 elderly persons were patients, leaving an undetermined number dead or missing.

Elmhurst Memorial Hospital said one man was pronounced dead there, and four others were treated for minor burns.

BURGLARS USE EVERY TOOL AT THEIR DISPOSAL

LAUREL, Miss. — (UPI) — Police today were looking for a thief who: Broke into the garage at the home of a school superintendent. Stole a tractor stored in the garage. Drove the vehicle to the school and broke in. Removed the school's safe. Hauled the safe back to the garage on the tractor. Used the principal's acetylene torch, also stored in the garage, to open the safe. Departed with $300.

"HARMONY WEEKEND" is official, with Mayor Frank Bogert inking his name to the proclamation that opens the door for barber shop quartets from throughout Southern California. Hugh M. Brinkley, president of the 31-member Palm Springs Chapter of the SPEBSQSA, looks on as the mayor signs the resolution. Quartets will base their operations at the Lone Palm Hotel, will highlight their three-day meeting with a huge singfest at 8 p. m., Saturday, in Palm Springs High School Auditorium. (Desert Sun Photo)

SPEBSQSA GIVEN 'WARM' WELCOME

The Village anti-noise ordinance will be suspended temporarily here this weekend when a horde of barber shop quartets descend on the city.

First units of the expected 200 members of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America started filtering into town and found that Mayor Frank Bogert had rolled out the welcome mat for them by issuing a proclamation that allows them to "harmonize their hearts content any time, any place, within the city limits of Palm Springs during this week-end."

THE SPEBSQSA units, representing such far-away places as Long Beach, San Gabriel, Crescenta Valley, San Bernardino, Rialto, Fontana and Riverside, will headquarter at the Lone Palm Hotel for their three-day meeting.

Highlight of the conclave is a huge musical show titled "Harmony in the Palms," scheduled for 8 p. m., Saturday, in Palm Springs High School Auditorium. Some tickets are still available at the Lone Palm for the two-hour exhibition by the best of Southland quartets.

Scheduled to make their concert debut along with the line-up of out-of-town talent is the Palm Springs Barber Shop Quartet, under the direction of Alex Hammond. It has been rehearsing for this initial effort and Hammond says the group is "in good voice" for the occasion.

MAYOR BOGERT'S official sanction of the conclave included laudatory comments about the worth of the SPEBSQSA; he called it "true harmony in the spirit of good fellowship."

The proclamation, issued Tuesday, will be in effect throughout the weekend here.

There's just one hitch in the mayor's relaxation of the Village law — you have to possess "proper credentials" as a bona fide member of the SPEBSQSA.

Great Lakes Area Receives Heavy Snowfall

United Press International
A stormy cold front today etched a line north along the Mississippi River Valley, circling the snow-covered Central States with a band of warmer air.

Heavy snows fell along the Upper Mississippi Valley and extended into the Great Lakes region, Wisconsin and Michigan. Three inches of new snow hit Lone Rock, Wis., and Grand Rapids, Mich., Thursday night and drifted over a wide area under high winds.

Temperatures dropped more than 20 degrees in such widely separated communities as Trinidad, Colo., Grand Island, Neb., and Sioux City, Iowa, ranging from 10 above zero to 10 below.

Project of Ryan, Rogers

North Shore Marina, Well Kept Secret, Is Under Way

One of the largest marinas in Southern California, boasting a capacity of 400 boats, has come to the Salton Sea without benefit of advance publicity fanfare.

It's part of the $7,000,000, 1,000-acre residential and recreational community of North Shore Beach being developed by Trav Rogers and Oilman Ray Ryan. Ten miles of paved roads already grace the community.

IN MAKING THIS announcement, Rogers revealed that the marina is constructed and ready for public inspection. He also announced that North Shore Beach had started construction of Salton Sea's first clubhouse. Expected to be a social rendezvous for water sports enthusiasts, the $200,000, two-story clubhouse is scheduled for completion this spring. It will be headquarters for the North Shore Yacht Club. Designed by architects Frey and Chambers of Palm Springs, the clubhouse's 5,900 square feet of floor area will include a restaurant, cocktail lounge and Commodore's Room. Other facilities will be locker rooms, a swimming pool, private cabanas, tennis and badminton courts and a sandy beach.

ROGERS SAID HE and Ryan had selected the close-to-the-sea 1,000-acre site, located on Highway 111 just east of Mecca, after carefully combing the area for several months. The site chosen, their survey revealed, is ideally suited

Cuban War Crimes Trials Are Delayed

No Reason Given By Government For Postponement

HAVANA (UPI) — The provisional government suddenly postponed its "war crimes" trials for 12 hours today without giving an explanation.

The trials were scheduled to resume at 8 a. m. but two hours later, when they still had not started, Army Judge Advocate Humberto Sorli Marin announced they had been put off until tonight.

HE SAID THEY would begin simultaneously at Camp Columbia and Cabana Fortress in an attempt to speed up proceedings.

Lt. Col. Richardo L. Grao, Cuba's "war criminal No. 3" was slated to be next on trial.

While there was no immediate indication how long Grao's trial will take, tribunals sitting simultaneously at Camp Columbia and Cabana Prison are expected to deal with lesser offenders at a rate of seven a day.

THE TRIALS OF Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco and Pedro Morejon Valdes, the only other war criminals tried in Havana so far, lasted for upwards of 10 hours while witnesses by the dozen came forward to testify against the defendants.

In all, 33 persons took the stand against Sosa and 55 against Morejon.

It is not certain what witnesses will be called against Grao. The 600-odd farmhands who swarmed in from Oriente Province to tell their stories at the earlier trial have almost all returned home, leaving no more than a score of their number in Havana.

THE SUPREME military tribunal meets tonight to hear the appeals of Sosa and Morejon. Informed sources expect that both appeals will be rejected and that the two men will be shot at dawn.

These sources discounted rumors that Sosa might be granted a new trial, even though attorneys on both sides of his case have submitted new evidence.

ISRAELI STATESMAN Joseph Kokia, director-general of Israel's Ministry of Justice, chats with home, Kokia, the uncle of Mrs. Hurwitz will speak on Israel justice at Temple Isaiah tonight.

TOP ISRAELI LAW OFFICIAL HERE, TELLS EXPERIENCES

Israel today is piloted by a free-wheeling kind of government that can stub its toe on a strip of bacon or challenge the combined might of its collective enemies.

It's a land where men are men, and so are most of the women — legally, that is.

WHICH MEANS that the world's youngest democracy is flexible enough to bend with the will of its people while it builds the strength to stand firm on an eye-to-eye footing with its neighbors.

Just how well this infant nation's system of democracy works was outlined here today by Joseph Kokia, director-general of Israel's Ministry of Justice.

Kokia is vacationing at the Village home of Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz after completing an important and highly successful mission of state in South America.

HE WILL SPEAK on Israeli justice at Temple Isaiah tonight. An intrepid citizen nominally charged with the task of managing the experts who draft laws for Parliament, Kokia was assigned to negotiate treaties of extradition with six South American nations.

"We signed all six," he reported, "but the differences in our administrative and legal systems created a few difficulties."

THE AFFABLE statesman explained that Israel's regard for the life of man poses a problem with nations that deal in capital punishment.

"We will not extradite a murderer if he faces a death sentence in the prosecuting nation," Kokia said, pointing out that Israel has abolished the death penalty.

"Public opinion demanded it," he explained. "We feel that we are not entitled to take a human life."

IF A NATION wants to extradite a man charged with murder, it must agree not to exact the death penalty, Kokia said.

TEXAN OBJECTS TO HER HUSBAND'S WEST COAST HABITS

FORT WORTH, Tex. — (UPI) — Mrs. Jessie Hicks won a divorce from her elderly native Californian husband Thursday because she couldn't stand his West Coast habits.

She told the judge she didn't mind his not dressing for dinner, but it was too much when he came for his toast and coffee each morning in the nude.

"That might be all right in California, but it's sickening to me," Mrs. Hicks said. She said she didn't appreciate him sleeping in the nude either.

And that's not all. She said her spouse, Willie Weslin Hicks, told her during their one month courtship that he was 66.

"I found out later he was 10 years older," she complained.

Senate Group Told Gap Isn't Significant

U. S. Works with Wartime Urgency On Man in Space

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's civilian space chief today described as "reasonable" a statement that Russia is perhaps 18 months ahead of the United States in space exploration.

Dr. T. Keith Glennan, director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, told a Senate inquiry the gap isn't too significant at the moment but would become serious if this country continues to lag.

GLENNAN ASSURED the Senate group the U. S. is working with wartime urgency to place a man into space "within the next couple of years."

He assured the senators that in the past year the U. S. has made "great strides" in space exploration and had gathered a "tremendous amount of information."

He said it was important for the U. S. to get a man into space "because there is no substitute for the judgment of man."

GLENNAN'S indirect estimate of Soviet space leadership came when he was read a statement saying the U. S. was perhaps 18 months behind at this point. Glennan said the statement was "reasonable."

GLENNAN NOTED that right now the difference is not too significant because the field of space research is still so relatively new. But he said it was of "tremendous importance" to this country to be "in the forefront in all significant fields."

At another point, Glennan said "speaking scientifically, in the overall I would think we are on a par" with the Russians. He conceded that "on the propulsion side, they can do things we can't and would like to do."

GLENNAN testified as the Senate group investigating U. S. progress in space exploration and missile achievements began its second day of hearings. The investigation is being conducted by Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.).

Two Mock Trials to Highlight Two-Day State Convention

A pair of mock trials—one covering "Personal Injury" and the other "Malpractice"—will highlight the two-day educational conference on medico-legal jurisprudence being held by the California State Society of the American College of General Practitioners in Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery at the El Mirador Hotel here.

The meeting convenes Saturday and ends Sunday.

Villager Erle Stanley Gardner will be special guest of the osteopaths for an address at 1:30 p. m. Sunday. He will discuss "Cross-examination in regard to the Fees of Expert Witnesses."

Also scheduled to speak at the meeting are Riverside County

District Attorney William O. Mackey, who will deliver the welcoming address, and George W. Northrup, president of the American Osteopathic Association, who will speak on "The Price of Success."

DeGaulle Plans 'Fireside Chat'

PARIS — (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle will broadcast a "fireside chat" to the nation tonight to reassure a people troubled by new bloodshed in Algeria and resentful of a financial squeeze at home.

Two Proposals

Indian Land Equalization Plans in Spotlight Again

Proposed equalization for the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians took the forefront again today, with both the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Congressman D. S. Saund taking steps to push through their individual plans.

Congressman Saund on Jan. 15 introduced into the House of Representatives HR 2564, a bill which calls for the equalization of local Indian lands, by not including some tribal properties such as the canyons and cemeteries, as proposed by the local Indian Council, and within a week the Bureau of Indian Affairs printed instructions for allotment of the vital Indian lands in Palm Springs in the Federal Register dated Friday, Jan. 23, 1959.

THE TRIBAL COUNCIL has been working to block the proposed Bureau plan since it was first brought up by the bureau a year ago, and so far has been successful in its attempt.

Ray Simpson, attorney for the local Indian Council, said today that the Tribe still wants the Bureau's proposal to go before Federal Court Judge William C. Mathies, who ordered the equalization, for his approval, but as yet it has not been done.

The bureau plan would make the equalization possible by using all the tribal lands, totaling 2,538 acres and valued at $2,500,000, and dividing it among the Indian allottees who have land with a low appraisal value.

THE PALM SPRINGS Indian plan, which is referred to as "a will be given the right to program," calls for (1) the retention of all Indian reserve lands; (2) the remaining tribal lands to be used for equalization; (3) and if this amount of land is not sufficient, the remainder will be made up by issuing an equalization certificate.

This plan is being highly endorsed by the City of Palm Springs, which under Saunders bill will be given the right to purchase the vital and necessary Palm Springs Municipal airport. Because of this measure being the only Indian legislation before Congress to date, Congressman Saund has promised "all speed" in getting the issue to a hearing.

Burglary Arrest Made By Deputies at Crime Scene

A 21-year-old Cathedral City man was taken into custody Wednesday night when he returned to the scene of the crime to continue his efforts to burglarize the Signal Service Station at San Luis Rey Drive and Ramon Road. Percy Wayne Chenoweth, was taken into custody by Riverside County Sheriff's Deputies Richard E. Holder and Howard A. Katz, after Holder expressed his belief that the burglar had not completed his job.

THE TWO OFFICERS, on a routine check of business places in the desert, pulled into the service station to make a check of the building when they noticed a broken window. Holder got out of the car and hid near the building while his companion drove the police car down the road.

Apparently seeing the deputies leave the area, Chenoweth reportedly returned to the station to complete the job of busting open the cigarette and soft drink machines. Hold placed him under arrest as Katz returned in the car.

ENTRANCE INTO the building had been made by breaking a window and unlocking the door. Chenoweth confessed to the attempted burglary deputies said and at his arraignment today before Judicial District Court Judge Eugene Theriault he admitted the allegations and was bound over to appear in Department 4, Superior Court on Feb 5 at 2 p.m.

MEDICAL SOCIETY HOLDS SEMINAR AT WESTERN HILLS

A two-day seminar of the Western Medical Society at Desert Western Hills Hotel near Palm Springs will be highlighted by a luncheon style show tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.

The show will be staged by Edith Moore's Fashions, of Palm Desert, and commented by Isabel Cameron.

Spring resort wear will be the theme of show, which will be held in the hotel's picturesque dining room.

The public is invited. Other social activities enjoyed by the doctors and their wives will be golf at adjoining Indian Wells Country Club, tours of the nearby date farms and horse back rides along desert bridge paths.

Scott, who eats and eats but can't gain weight, is part of the show that features Park Avenue hillbilly Dorothy Shay, the juggling Martin Brothers and music by Bill Alexander's Chi Chi Orchestra. Two shows a night bring large crowds to the North Palm Canyon Drive bistro.

people of various municipalities their own choice of whether or not to eat the bacon.

IT ELIMINATED the prospects of "prohibition" and a bootleg bacon market while it saved the government, Kokia quipped.

"This indicates how well our system of Democracy works," Kokia remarked. "Governments may fall or be kept in office through the criticism of Parliament, which is regulated by the public."

Democracy in Israel also means equal rights for women. Women must serve in the army along with their menfolk.

They're even required to bear arms—the lethal kind.

ISRAELI WOMEN can be doctors, lawyers and statesmen, but they never lose sight of one important fact. An Israeli woman is always a woman. Kokia pointed out with justifiable pride.

Kokia, who is the uncle of Rabbi Hurwitz's wife, Rena, also pointed with pride to Israel's expanding economy and mushrooming population.

Israel economy is a strange and complex structure, wherein a bellhop earns as much money as a statesman or judge and wheat is more important than dollars.

FOR INSTANCE, Israel buys American auto parts which are assembled in Israel and shipped to other nations in exchange for wheat, beef and oil.

"It's an absurd situation," Kokia mused, "but it means we can trade goods instead of dollars."

Of course, Israel also makes its own goods, ranging from textiles to cosmetics, while it serves to find occupations for its incoming citizens.

ation area, they are on a slight elevation. This provides the advantages of privacy, remoteness from traffic noises and scenic view, Rogers said.

"There's no doubt that North Shore Beach's marina is the king of marinas," he added. "In addition to the 400 boats it can handle it will feature new engineering principles to make boat launching easier. Five electrically-powered hoists will expedite launching and save boaters from the usual wetting they experience during launching."

ENGINEERS, HEADED by Consulting Engineer Jack Wooley, of Santa Ana, have provided the marina with some startling innovations, including fibre glass pier construction. The pier will have a fibre glass top with floats resting on fibre glass pontoons. Night lighting will permit the pier to use round the clock and each slip will have a water faucet and electrical outlet.

North Shore Beach's extensive facilities for mooring boats should provide unprecedented encouragement for Salton Sea sailboating enthusiasts, Rogers continued. There hobby is a little more intricate and calls for the special mooring available at North Shore's new marina.

Memberships in the North Shore Yacht Club are not confined to property owners or boat owners. They are open to all sports enthusiasts.

Included among the club's facilities will be boat servicing, both dry and wet, boat rentals, a dock-side gasoline station and a complete marine supply store.

So impressed is the boating world with North Shore Beach that one of the nation's leading boat designers, Larson Boats of Little Falls, Minn., has established an agency there. A Larson boat recently captured first place in a 50-mile race at Long Beach in which 40 different makes of boat participated. Locally the Larson boat is manufactured in Ontario.

Among the items essential to jet operations; ear muffs, worn by ground crews working near the engines.

Adult Evening Classes to Start

Registration was opened this week for the second semester of high school adult evening classes.

Adult School Principal George Manington said area residents are invited to enroll now in the evening school courses.

CLASSES PARTICULARLY in need of enrollments now, Manington said, are bookkeeping, shorthand, sewing, creative writing, mosaic inlay, speech, drama and landscape painting.

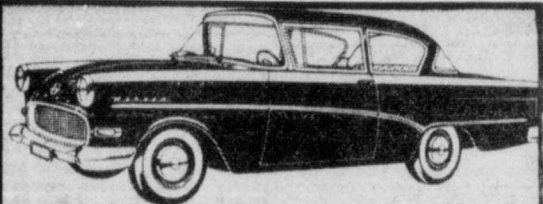

Manington explained that most classes are continuing on from last semester, but many are open to new students. But prospective students may "visit" those classes which require some background to "assess their probable success."

BROCHURES LISTING classes, their times and places are now available at various distribution points. They may be secured at the school district office, both library branches and the chamber of commerce office.

Further information may be obtained from the adult evening school office at Palm Springs High School.

CITIZENS OF CALIPATRA CLAIM 'NEIGHBORS' TITLE

Citizens of Calipatria — the "lowest city in the Western Hemisphere" — today laid proud claim to a new title for their community.

They're calling it "the City of Good Neighborliness."

Which, says Congressman D. S. Saund, is a title well-deserved.

CONGRESSMAN SAUND explained that Calipatria's new sobriquet is an outgrowth of the city's campaign for a new flag.

Youth Rescued From Under 2-Ton Section of Pipe

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A 12-year-old boy, trapped for nearly seven hours under a two-ton section of concrete pipe, was rescued early today by heavy equipment and delicate work by police and firemen.

Officers agreed that Perry Luth III was saved by the softness of the dirt. It allowed the huge drain pipe to push him into the earth. The boy was reported missing Wednesday night from his Westchester District home. His father, joining scores of searchers, heard his faint cries for help.

Preliminary examination indicated Perry suffered a broken leg, shock and possible internal injuries. Rescuers estimated that another hour under the crushing weight might have killed him.

pole — a flagpole unlike any other in the nation.

Calipatria, the Congressman pointed out, is situated 184 feet below sea level, in the Imperial Valley, which makes it "the lowest-down city in the Western Hemisphere."

But its citizens wanted a flagpole high enough to fly the Stars and Stripes above sea level.

"It was a monumental problem," Congressman Saund remarked, "but its solution is a wonderful story of community spirit and friendship."

IT ALL STARTED when Mrs. Helen Momita, a Calipatria resident, was killed in an auto crash. Her husband, Harry, a leading figure in the flagpole campaign, was badly injured.

Momita, owner of the city's only drugstore, was confined to a hospital for several weeks — but he had no worries about his store. Local citizens volunteered to keep the drugstore open, and a druggist from nearby Brawley donated his time for a daily motor trip to the store.

tions while the citizens waited on customers in the store.

Meanwhile, Calipatria residents established a memorial fund for Mrs. Momita, but her husband thought the best way to use the fund would be the purchase of a flagpole, Saund related.

Momita made a large personal contribution to the flagpole fund and proposed that it be called the "Good Neighbor Flagpole."

MANY OTHER citizens chipped in and the Pacific Southwest Pipe Company, of Los Angeles, engineered and manufactured the pole for only the actual cost of its materials.

Today, the flag flies above sea level, and the base of the 200-foot staff has a marker bearing the legend:

Sail, swim, water ski, hunt, snow ski, golf and fly right around the year?

And SALTON CITY—on the shore of the sparkling sea—is in the center of the miracle. SALTON CITY is man's masterfully-planned community where homes are springing up... where there are marinas for boating, sailing and skiing enthusiasts... where hotels, motels and all kinds of businesses are under construction... where roads are being paved at the rate of 1½ miles a day!

Yes—Salton City is the $50,000,000 miracle in the desert! We invite you to investigate—then invest in our boundless future!

Campaign To Abolish Capital Punishment Not New In California

The recent publicity broadside by the forces seeking to abolish capital punishment in California follows a familiar pattern to those experienced with its legislative history.

Similar efforts have been launched at two-year intervals for some time past simultaneously with the opening of what is known as the "legislative" session of the State solons in alternate years.

With all due respect to the good intentions and firm convictions of those who persistently endeavor to do away with the death penalty, the public at large seems to be leaning stronger towards more stringent application, possibly adding dope peddling to the list of capital crimes.

In the main, State law prescribes the death penalty only for first degree (premeditated) murder, and in cooperation with the Federal government in extreme cases of kidnapping and treason.

Court records show that an overwhelming percentage of the murders committed result in second degree. Only a comparatively few cases, those of utter brutality, fiendishness or mass killings, is the murderer sentenced to die.

Should capital punishment be abolished, the present punishment provides for a term of from seven years to life imprisonment as against five years to life for involuntary manslaughter.

Even if life imprisonment were substituted, records show that "lifers" are released after an average of 11 years incarceration.

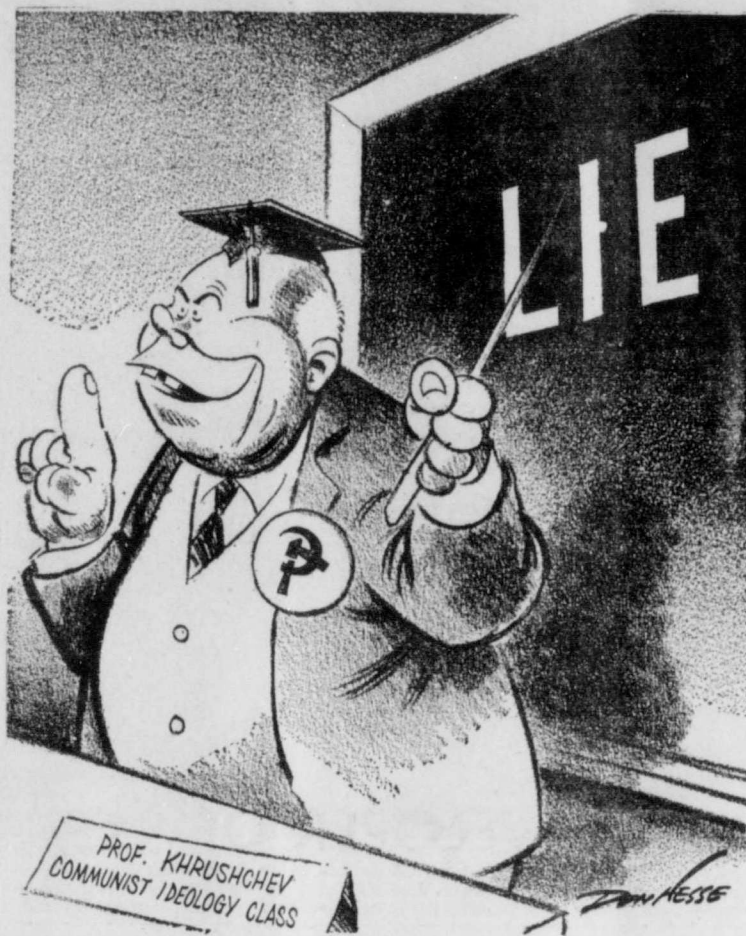

As a key to public opinion towards maintaining the death penalty examination of prospective jurors in murder trials shows that only one in each twenty questioned objects to capital punishment.

From a law enforcement standpoint statistics reveal that more than 25 per cent of criminals arrested for armed robbery and other offenses are found to carry unloaded guns, thus evidencing the salutary effect of laws providing increased penalties for possession of a loaded gun.

In the face of the steadily increasing rate of crime in California, including murder, and the influx of notorious criminals from other States, it is doubtful that renewal of the campaign for abolishment of capital punishment will find much support at the present legislative session or among the citizens at large.

It is no longer an academic question of meting out punishment to fit the crime, but retaining and strengthening every possible deterrent to prevent crime.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

For all of this whining I now feel contrite, Indian is marked with A line sharp and bright.

For some weeks now this column has been receiving communications, verbal and written, calling attention to a hazardous condition on North Indian Avenue.

THOSE COMPLAINTS cited the flow of water over the highway which is used by hundreds daily, traveling between Palm Springs and Whitewater, Desert Hot Springs and North Palm Springs.

And the winds which zoom down the Pass and blow sand. They said there should be signs there to warn drivers.

ALSO THAT the white line in the center of the street was too dim, scoured by the blowing sands and under water part of the time.

So today comes a communication from Whitewater citing praise for the county road department.

Things have happened fast on North Indian Avenue, I am informed.

FIRST, SIGNS were put up warning that the stretch was "Subject to Flooding" and also designating it as a "Wind Area". That was good.

Then the county installed culverts there which took care of the flood water situation nicely. That was better.

AND THIS WEEK, a crew was on the stretch and now there is a bright, white line up the middle of the pavement.

That is best. Motorists will know where the center of the street is, won't have to risk running off the shoulder into the sand to avoid collisions.

That white line will make driving less of a strain and will serve to reduce the possibilities of accidents.

HOW LONG it stays bright and white depends on the wind and sand which scours the paint.

With all of the work the county has done to safeguard the stretch, it seems sort of picayune to say this:

But perhaps a windbreak to throttle the gale and protect not only motorists but that bright white line could be next.

YEARS AGO, when a cub reporter in Los Angeles, a Must on my agenda was a weekly visit to the Orpheum theater. I was a vaudeville addict and how I loved those acts!

Got to know most of them by heart. I watched them so often. Well, what reminds me of those great old days was that the other night I went to Shepherds at Whitewater to hear May Branch, the organist who knows all of the delightful old favorites as well as the new ones.

VISITING HER were her mother and father, Dolores (66) and J. Barney (72) O'Hagen, who have been active for countless years on the vaudeville and Chautauqua circuits.

And they sang some old numbers which sounded just as good as when they were a lot younger. Those old vaudeville acts—they were great.

If you want to know how long ago that was—the Orpheum was then on Spring street between Second and Third.

STAN DELAPLANE'S

Postcard

In the cold and snowy winter night, Squaw Valley looks like a picture postcard. The snow peaks rising in the moonlight to 9000 feet. (The valley floor is 6000 feet up in California's Sierra Nevada).

The Jeffrey pines, big and black against the white hills. The lights of Squaw Valley Lodge shine golden orange through the big picture windows.

There is a huge log fire in the fireplace. And Ralph Sutton is at the piano. I cannot think of a place I would rather be.

THE VALLEY has grown considerably since I first came here ten years ago. There is a fair cluster of Swiss chalet homes at the head of the valley.

But the major changes are in the swampy center. Where Squaw Creek used to run over the banks in the spring.

This will be the center of the 1960 Winter Olympics. And Squaw Creek has been rerouted to the other side of the valley.

BIG ORANGE girders are spotted in the central position. These will be the bleachers for the ice skating events. There are three lifts and a rope tow operating. By 1960 there will be two more.

The entrance road has been four-laned.

The main trans-continental Highway 40 is being double-tracked through the roughest, wildest ridges of the jagged Sierra.

Already I hear nostalgic conversation about the good old days.

FOR MY 3-year-old son, these are the good old days. This is his first time in snow.

While I have been investigating low and high costs of skiing, I have kept his budget at a minimum.

I have been advised that ski boots should cost you at least $50.

His boots cost 78 cents. At the 10-cent store. They are red rubber and he thinks they are the most elegant thing on the ski slopes.

SKIS—THE SLIDING equipment.

EARL WILSON:

Compliments, Compliments

NEW YORK — Compliments, compliments, all I get is compliments. And the kind of compliments I get, I'd rather get insults. "Dear Mr. Wilson," a letter started out. "We would like to present you with a new hat that will warm the cockles of your head." Just when I was enjoying this nice gesture, the letter said, "You are now wearing a flat-top hat and of all the men to wear a flat-top hat, you shouldn't."

I went over to this place, Thomas Begg on Park Av., and they hung on me a "demibowler," half Homburg and half bowler. I proudly wore it home where my B.W. said, "I like that hat." I said, "Oh, you're sweet." She said, "On John Foster Dulles." Rona Friedman of my office came forward with just the right compliment. "Gee, that's good looking!" she exclaimed. As I beamed, she said, "When was it that they used to wear those?" Do you get compliments, too?

Edith Piaf sings better — and looks plainer — every year. When she opened at the Waldorf the other night some fashion snob said, "Who doesn't design her clothes?" The flat-chested chanteuse (an oddity nowadays) wore her usual plain black dress, with no waistline, no belt, and open-toed flat sandals — and her hair had been freshly mussed. Her face shone — she was out of powder. But this is Piaf; recovered from an auto accident which was almost fatal, she even danced a little. Hidden behind a screen was a chorus and some of Emil Coleman's musicians playing like a symphony.

Piaf in that gamine getup will arouse more excitement than the busty dames who undress to music. "The Inside" (according to the insiders): "The murder at Birdland wasn't premeditated because murderers don't take their girls along when they go out to murder." B'way Crack: "The Birdland murder was perpetrated by a music-lover" ... English papers, better not copy I got this letter from Sussex, England, involving two Very Big Names: "Why not ask Lord—something we dare not ask here—why he has not been honest and admitted his love for Mr. —'s wife for 20 years and allowed Mr. — to connive at his wife having a lover to everybody's knowledge?" ... Young actor Jimmy Yohan, TV's "Voice of Snowflake" and "The Parrot Man," is marketing an invention, "The Perfect Book Mark," which (he comes right out and admits) makes all other book marks obsolete.

We were out with Frances Langford and her husky husband, Ralph Evinrude, the outdoor tycoon, when my B.W. suddenly got the hiccups.

"Let me treat her" boomed Evinrude. He put her arms around the back of her chair and gave her a jolt in the back. She got over the hiccups—but three other people got them.

He's happy nowadays; his beloved Fran's going to sing on TV Mar. 15 on NBC's "Francis Langford Presents."

"Her voice's better than ever but she clams up and won't sing," he complains.

"I only like to sing when we're driving, so nobody but me can hear me," she says.

They came up from Stewart, Fla., where they have a 419-pound piece of blue-fin tuna (which Fran caught) over the fireplace. Ralph, a cut-up, has put a big electrical glass eye in the head of the fish—and when Ralph can get Fran to sing, "When You Speak To Me With Your Eyes," the electrical glass eye winks. This is not the reason, though, that Fran doesn't like to sing.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ...

El Morocco boss John Perona slipped on the sidewalk throwing snowballs at George de Witt and fractured his wrist. (Mary Morrison nursed him) ... The Crosby kids stopped in Toots' and roamed Bing in Palm Springs ... Rocky Graziano's working on a TV show with Nat Hiken to be called "Punch and Judy."

EARL'S PEARLS: Ima Washout reports that men's bowling team sponsored by a church group is called "the Holy Rollers."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Tab Pulls Fast One

HOLLYWOOD — Tab Hunter pulled a fast one and bought his Warner Bros. contract back from that company for $50,000 before the studio bosses could catch him as Sophia Loren's leading man in Paramount's "That Kind of Woman." The Warners got $100,000 for loaning Tab to Paramount for this picture, laughing up their sleeves about it—after all, who could imagine Tab as Sophia's amour?

Well, I've got news for them — I caught the first sneak preview in Westwood Village and the kid is only GREAT as the GI who breaks up Soph's romance with her rich boy friend, George Sanders! Tab's Warner ticket had two more years to go. I've got a hunch they'll be sorry they dropped him.

COLUMBIA FOR ONE, is coaxing him to star as the sailor who falls for a Neapolitan dame in "The Roses"—$175,000 for one picture, compared with the $100,000 a week he got at WB!

Hollywood sentimental? You bet it is. Paramount boss Y. Frank Freeman ordered all chairs except the late Cecil B. DeMille's removed from the great producer's eight-chair table in the studio commissary and a fresh bowl of red roses (DeMille's favorites) placed in the center of the table for the next three months.

Good Old Days Dep't (the Aug. 12, 1981, entry in the diary of playwright Henry Churchill De Mille): "Today my little son Cecil was born and the medical fee for his arrival was six dollars."

ADELE MARA'S masterly sum-up of the cinema situation cross-country: "Theatre attendance might increase if the movie industry worked as hard at keeping corn off the screen at it does keeping it in the lobby machines!"

Dalton Trumbo, the avowed commie, may be pushing his luck too far in his arrogant claims that he wrote the screenplay for the Academy Award-winning "Brave Ones" under the name of "Robert Rich" I have it on excellent authority that if the case every comes up for arbitration before the Screenwriters' Guild, they'll prove that the original script was written by John Fante and Norman Foster. And if that doesn't keep Trumbo, one of the most defiant of Hollywood's notorious "Unfriendly Ten" from picking up that Oscar nothing will!

HARRY KARL contributed a full-length mink coat and also a mink-trimmed beaver coat to Joan's trousseau for their pre-ent wedding.

Molly Bee and Dwayne Hickman staged a picnic photo spread for a fan mag, complete with a basketful of fried chicken, fried by Molly herself, but threw it all out and re-stocked their picnic basket with fishplates purchased from a roadside stand. It was Friday.

LEIGH SNOWDEN, who gave up her fast-moving movie career at Universal to become Mrs. Dick Contino, joins a new nightclub act today (Jan. 30) at the Flamingo in Las Vegas—Contino & Snowden ... same spa, incidentally, has signed George Raft, one of Tinseltown's top tap-dancers from "way back, for a spring stand."

Donald O'Connor's definition: "A square is somebody who doesn't know what a square is."

CHANNEL CHATTER —Eighteen of Hollywood's top network shows appear doomed to be pink-slipped at the end of their current cycles unless their ratings improve—a record in this fast-moving business and dismal news for all involved! The shows are Lux Theatre, Lawrence Welk, Robert Cummings, Buckskin, Cimmerron City, Donna Deed, Eddie Fisher, Elinor Queen, George Burns, It Could Be You, Jefferson Drum, Leave It to Beaver, Northwest Passage, 77 Sunset Strip, Bold Journey, Dragnet, Rough Riders and You Asked For It.

Liberalism will guest on Tennessee Ernie Ford's March 12, St. Patrick's show—to sing and play Irish songs!

GRAB YORE GATS, guys—Joan Crawford will gallop that-way in an upcoming Zane Grey Theatre segment.

Dragnet's going down the drain, as noted—so what's happened to Jack Webb's other highly publicized Pete Kelly's Blues? NBC-TV claims it's sitting on it and won't give it the usual tryout this summer—instead, the web will push it for a big ride starting in the fall.

And if the George Burns show bounces off the beam? Well, George is writing a new comedy series for another star, Carol Channing.

Just to see how you fans take it, Gene Barry will drop his ladykiller pose on one of the Bat Masterson segs in March. Not one female in the cast. It's title: "Battle of the Pass." PASS!?!?

EVERYBODY WANTS in on the producer's act (as duly noted by Sam Goldwyn at last week's Screen Producers' Guild banquet)—so Welk, Fargo star Dale Robertson has signed one of his supporting actors, Dean Smith, to a personal contract and has already started grooming the handsome ex-track star for his own series.

Rowan and Martin have three words for the big, blatin' rating battle now going on between TV's top Western heroes: "The Colt War."

VILLAGE DEVELOPER OFFERS THREE ACRE LOTS IN HAWAII

When the temperature starts rising in the desert area—about July and August—Islanders on Hawaii and the rest of that fabled Pacific Ocean chain are getting ready for the best part of their year.

They get out seldom-worn jackets because the trade winds are balmy and brisk in the evenings and they head for their beaches each day.

IT SOUNDS enticing and it's not as inaccessible as you think. In fact, you can join those carefree, happy islanders for a total net outlay of $850, according to a Palm Springs developer.

Donald J. Mills, of 382 South Palm Canyon Drive, a man who knows an opportunity when he sees one, grabbed up as much land on the Island of Hawaii as he could and waited. Now he has a literal gold mine.

THE TERRITORIAL government has put through a huge, well-made road called Volcano Highway that runs from the island's capital of Hilo to the Volcano House at the foot of 4,090-foot Kilauea. You have a view of that sightseer's dream and an even better eyeful of awesome Mauna Loa, the island's highest point, 13,680 feet above sea level.

Midway between Hilo and Kilauea, Mills located his land and promptly dubbed it Hawaiian Acres.

IN ADDITION TO its accessibility to the better-known landmarks, Hawaiian Acres is also near the exotic Hawaiian National Park, close to Kalapana Beach Park—with its "black sand"—and Onekahakaha Beach Park, within reach of the magnificent Rainbow Falls and a thousand other spectacular sights, all peculiar only to Hawaii.

Mills says that the lots—all of them in three-acre segments—vary from open rangeland to thickly-grown hapu fern and ohia tree parcels. Many of the acres are cleared of foliage, but Mills has preserved some of them with their natural growth on the supposition that potential islanders might want to carve out their homesteads utilizing the natural environment.

MOREOVER, SOME of the growth is in profitable macadamia nuts, orchids, anthurium, coffee and citrus. In the expanding economy of Hawaii, the opportunity for investment is unusually lucrative, Mills said.

With the advent of jet travel, Hawaiian Acres is now only slightly more than six hours from any Southern California airport that handles the fast-moving aircraft.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW

Mr. Tony Will Just Have to go

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK — (UPI) — Reuben Vargas, a handsome young Mexican out of Richmond, Calif., who does on Plato, has a philosophical outlook as he prepares to battle Tony Anthony at Madison Square Garden tonight.

"If I hit him with this," Vargas said quietly as he held up a fist as big as a first baseman's glove, "Mr. Anthony will have to go."

The odds are 3-1 against Reuben accomplishing this feat of marksmanship on Tony's mysterious mandible, a curious bit of crockery which is highly allergic to contact with leather mittens.

Anthony has lost six bouts and five of those times he was knocked out by Vargas, a television mystery man what with this being his first video bout, has scored 13 knockouts in compiling 17 victories. So there is merit in his statement.

IF ALMOST ANYBODY strikes Mr. Anthony on his chin, young Tony usually "has to go." So there is no reason why Vargas cannot accomplish the feat "if I hit him with this."

Vargas, however, may be too busy receiving and avoiding to engage in offensively effective tactics. For, while he professes to have "no time for the ladies," out of the ring he looks like one of those Latin lover types out of an old grade B movie.

His hair is thick, jet black and curly. His brown eyes are soft. And white teeth smile evenly from under a pencil mustache. On top of which, he talks like a college man.

"I only graduated from high school," he says softly. "It is true that I read a great deal of philosophy and, while I am a carpenter by trade, I am studying to be an architect. As a matter of fact, after this fight I am going to begin my career by building a house for my mother."

HIS RECORD SHOWS 17 wins in 23 bouts and, as evidence of his ability, he went 10 rounds against heavyweight Alex Miteff. This is not a gift-edged guarantee of Reuben's prowess. Miteff, not being rated exactly a too drawer tiger, but it does show that Vargas knows his way through the ropes.

Anthony, the top-ranking light heavyweight challenger, at 23 will be giving away 10 pounds. But this classy boxer is a stiff puncher with 28 knockouts in 37 wins who also has heavyweight aspirations. All of which makes it shape up as a better than average teevee brawl.

Beverly Hills to Meet Eldorado Poloists Sunday

Eldorado Polo Club, with a mark of three wins, three losses and one tie for the season to date, plays off that tie next Sunday afternoon at Eldorado Fields.

Last Sunday Eldorado and Beverly Hills polo teams played to a fast six to six deadlock under a one-handicap for the visitors.

Instead of continuing in a "sudden death" play-off, the teams decided on a rematch this coming Sunday.

Game time is 2 p.m., and tickets are available at the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce or at the gate of the Fields the day of the game.

Tribe, Perris Clash Tonight

Last Round Of RC Cage Play Begins

With Palm Springs High School Indians, hoping to firm up their third place position, and Perris High, eager to revenge a 49 to 39 defeat handed them by the Tribe when they met here January 6, the two teams tangle on the Perris floor at 8 p.m. today in a Riverside County League Varsity game.

Bee teams of the two institutions clash at 7 p.m. there.

Coach Jim Workman's Indians, after two unexpected set-backs in the first round of league play, are pepped up as result of a 61-55 win over Coachella Valley's Arabs last Tuesday. The Arabs had been pre-season favorites to take the crown.

THE TRIBE has a 4-3 mark to date and Perris is 3-4. Palm Springs hoopers have scored 347 points in seven games and have given up 323, for a 49.4 to 46 average.

FLOYD PATTERSON is finally going to break a long spell of rest. He hasn't defended his heavyweight championship title for almost a year but has signed to meet Ingemar Johansson this summer. Date and site have not been selected. (International)

Site for Heavy Title Bout Still In Debate Today

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Manager Gus D'Amato declared flatly today he prefers Colorado Springs, Colo., as the site for the Floyd Patterson — Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight, which was signed Thursday without date or location.

But promoter Bill Rosenzohn insists he is considering five other cities besides Colorado Springs; also offers from two home-TV networks and one from an advertising agency for a national sponsor.

Sweden's unbeaten Johansson, champion of Europe, said, "I favor New York because of the bigger gate and because I expect 3,000 friends to come over from Sweden—and they wouldn't want to go clear to Colorado."

CONCERNING Colorado Springs, D'Amato — manager of champion Patterson, said: "I like that city's $500,000 net gate guarantee, and I like the people there—their hospitality and consideration for others."

Thayer Tutt, owner of the plush Broadmoor Hotel at Colorado Springs, confirmed Thursday the offer of a $500,000 guarantee for a live gate for the fight. The fight would be a feature of the Colorado centennial celebration.

Meanwhile, Patterson was installed a 13-5 favorite in man-to-man betting, to beat Johansson, despite Ingemar's 21 straight victories as a professional. It was "even money" Patterson will knock out the Swedish challenger.

Souchak, Duden Tied For San Diego Lead

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — (UPI) — The San Diego Open golf tournament, featuring 50 of the 60 top money winners of 1958, moved into the second day of competition today with a sprinkling of the usually also-rans battling for the leadership.

Tied with the well-known Mike Souchak for the lead is Bob Duden, a non-winner from Oswego, Ore. They each have seven-under-par 65's on the Mission Valley course that figures as a setup for the star shotmakers.

And within two strokes of the leaders are such comparative unknowns as Buddy Sullivan, Yuba City, Calif.; Joe Campbell, Knoxville, Tenn.; Bob Frayne, Wilmette, Ill., and Felice Torza, Aurora, Ill.

While the course was easy for some it was no setup for others. Such men as Art Wall, leading money winner of the year with $11,000 to his credit in the first four weeks, had a 71; Masters and Palm Springs champion Arnold Palmer had a 72. So did National Open champion Tommy Bolt. Frank Stranahan, went for 77 blows, Dave Marr for 78 and Art Doring, 75.

SECOND SUIT ATTACKS CHAVEZ RAVINE PACT

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — A second petition asking the California Supreme Court for a rehearing on its ruling upholding the Los Angeles Dodgers contract for Chavez Ravine was on file here today.

The 44-page brief was filed with the Los Angeles office of the court by attorney Julius Ruben, who originally had brought a taxpayer's suit against the Dodgers' contract with the city.

Earlier in the week attorney Phil Silver had asked the court for a rehearing on its 7-0 ruling upholding the agreement. Ruben challenged the high court's interpretation that the contract served a "public purpose" if considered as a whole.

Los Angeles city attorney Roger Arnebergh has stated that he doubted if the state Supreme Court would grant a rehearing in view of its unanimous ruling in favor of the city and the baseball club.

Silver said that if the rehearing is denied he intends carrying the case to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Pending removal of legal restrictions, the Dodgers have been unable to start work on the 12 million dollar stadium they intend building in Chavez Ravine. Club president Walter F. O'Malley said work would have to get underway by March 1 if the stadium is to be ready for use for the 1960 season.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: We have a new girl in our office who comes to work dressed like she was going to a square dance. She wears scoop-necked blouses and flared skirts with three and four stiff petticoats. I can't see outfits like that for a piece of business. I would like to see this published together with your answer.

Mr. So and So but she said, "Everybody knows it so I don't care if you repeat it." Now, please understand, Abby, when I repeated what I had heard I did not feel that I was letting the cat out of the bag or that I had broken my promise but I got into the biggest fight over this that I cannot sleep nights. Was I wrong or was I not?

BUSINESS WOMAN
DEAR BUSINESS: "New girls" in an office frequently overdress at first in an effort to make a good impression. Give her a little time to observe how the rest of the office girls dress. If she doesn't "catch on" tip her off in a friendly way.

SICK AT HEART
DEAR SICK: When anyone offers you "gossip" about a third party if you "promise not to tell"—tell them that you don't want the responsibility of knowing such confidential information. You were wrong in repeating gossip, whether it was "out of the bag" or not.

DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine called me up and said, "If you promise not to tell anyone, I will tell you something about So and So." Naturally I promised and she told me. The next day another friend called me up and told me the very same thing about this

DEAR ABBY: We are married and have one child. My husband is a checker in a grocery store and he is the friendly type with a real good disposition, but everywhere we go I catch him smiling at girls. If I smiled at men the way he smiles at girls, believe me,

I would have a few teeth missing. When I ask him to quit smiling at girls he says he didn't even know he was smiling. But I notice they smile back at him. (Does he think they are smiling at him for nothing?) Please tell me if I am being silly for my complaint?

NOT SMILING
DEAR NOT: A smile need not always be a signal for "encouragement"—but merely a pleasant expression. Let him smile.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "UNPOPULAR": A smile is a curve that can set a lot of things straight. Try it!

NEEDS HELP
DEAR NEEDS: Your mother doesn't realize that she is violating a very sacred trust. Ask her to PROMISE she'll keep your secrets, and tell her if she doesn't keep her promises you'll keep your secrets—to yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I am 13. I am starting to go out on dates. When I come home my mother wants to know what happened. I tell her and by the next morning it is spread all around the neighborhood. I have asked her time and again not to tell anyone but she keeps doing it. I can't say I don't want to tell her anything any more. What should I do?

'WOODEN DISH' TO BE NEXT FOR PALM DESERT PLAYERS

PALM DESERT — "The Wooden Dish," first production of the 1959 season by the Palm Desert Players, will be presented next Thursday.

This marks the fifth production during the Players' fiscal year which started last May, and their first dramatic presentation.

The play, written by Edmund Morris, depicts a family conflict concerning the age-old problem of old age. The three acts are packed with pathos and humor, with only the teen-age granddaughter able to establish rapport with the controversial figure of "Pop" Denison, convincingly portrayed by Clay Stearns.

Directed by Stearns, other members of the cast are Pat Von Barnevel, Rita Fagan, John Lacey, Joyce Waggoner, Cliff Young, Ralph Jensen, Howard Benninghoff, Carol Williams and Howard Van Barnevel.

Tickets are on sale at the Kallio Shop, Services Unlimited, and Carpenter's Furniture. For reservations call Alyce Tummell, at FI 6-6092.

Youth Group To Be Organized Sunday, Feb. 1

PALM DESERT — A community-wide, teenage youth organization will be formed Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Palm Desert Community church house.

All community youth are invited to come and help form this organization by electing officers, setting their own membership rules and scheduling a series of social and recreational events. All parents will be signed up as participating helpers.

This will be open to boys and girls from the ages of 12 to 13, and it is not a religious organization. The Rev. Warren McClain and Lou Kuehner have met with parents to plan the organization. Many of the social events will take place at Kuehner's "Leisure Loft."

The district included extends from Del Sol Road to Indian Wells.

Julie Borchard Returns Here

PALM DESERT — Mrs. Julie Borchard has returned from Los Angeles where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John Watson.

Mrs. Borchard, who first moved to the desert five years ago, is the new assistant in Hale's Men's store.

Scene of the Crime

NEW YORK — (UPI) — A tall dark-haired young man in a dark suit and a trenchcoat signaled cabdriver Joseph La Rocca early one recent morning, hopped into his taxi, rode for a while, robbed La Rocca of $40 and then hopped out.

The cabbie quickly found a policeman and while they were prowling around the neighborhood looking for the bandit, a tall, dark-haired young man in a dark suit and a trenchcoat stepped out from between some parked cars and signalled to La Rocca.

Turned out to be the same guy, who was arrested by the policeman as he was about to step into the cab.

Latest Luxury Home Project Is Announced

PALM DESERT — The latest of Palm Desert Sales Company's luxury home developments — Desert View Terrace — has been opened for public inspection. Ted ane, president of the firm announced yesterday. Desert View Terrace, located south of Highway 111 in the heart of Palm Desert, utilizes a natural slope which has been, as its name implies, terraced to a near-level accuracy. Estate-sized lots are surrounded by scenic beauty — a sprawling valley opening to the north, rambling mountain ranges on the south and west, Crane said.

A three-year-old plan by the sales firm, a program to release limited portions of its holdings here as the demand for outstanding home sites becomes large enough, is realized again in the Desert View Terrace development. Lots are priced at a value-conscious $5,700 and up with four model homes, all individually designed, priced from $29,500. One of the models decorated by Vee Niseley, is completely furnished and priced at $43,950.

Palm Desert Sales now maintains three offices in the Palm Desert area.

Mothers March From PD, CC Nets $645.85

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mrs. Howard Compton, chairman of the Mothers March on Polio for the area embracing Tramview through Palm Desert, today reported that the drive has not yet reached the goal set for the area.

Persons not at home during the hour of the March on Tuesday may contribute through the coin collectors placed in the various places of business.

Assisting Mrs. Compton in the Mothers March were co-chairman Mrs. Chris Christiansen and sixty mothers. Returns to date include Cathedral City School, $58.91 and Palm Desert School, $34.34.

Following are the amounts from the areas within the boundaries: Charlesworth, $51.59; Rancho Mirage, $61.01; Sunair, $48.61; Date Palm, $22.75; Tramview, $30.55; Cathedral City, $126.04; Peterson's Cove, $6.02; and Palm Desert, $162.72. Trailer parks added $114.56.

Mothers reported to Cathedral City School where the money was counted by Howard Compton, Chris Christiansen and Mrs. Joe Morehouse. It totaled $645.85. Coffee was served by members of the Cathedral City Junior Women's Club.

In our desert the amateur gardener should always keep in mind that the thousands of lines of gardening advice that appear in outside pamphlets, newspapers, magazines, books prepared by a host of fertilizer manufacturers and those written by experts of horticulture and gardening should be carefully scrutinized and checked.

We would be safe in saying that a huge per cent of the advice given and season talk is not applicable to the desert, mainly because of the withering summer heat and the sandy soil. Plants that grow as close as Banning, Beaumont and Riverside need an entirely different treatment here.

WITH VERY FEW exceptions our basic soil is sand ranging from very fine to silt, either of which would allow water to rapidly leach through and become of little benefit to the plants that are being irrigated.

To ameliorate this condition we have to rely on peat moss, mulch, leaf mold and humus to slow up the leaching of water until the plants have received the necessary amount of garden food to keep them in good condition. Even this treatment does not lessen our water consumption to a point where watering could be on a level with that used in other parts of Southern California.

MANY SPECIES OF plants are mentioned as lovers of full sun or medium sun; as full sun lovers we will mention geraniums and pelargoniums for example. If we try to grow these in full sun we can be sure of very poor results, but planting them on the north exposure of the house or the north exposure of a high fence we have excellent results with these colorful plants all year round when they have been monthly fed with a little iron sulphate.

When the temperature climbs to the high eighties the geranium family begins to wilt when planted in full sunshine, when the summer heat has reached 110 degrees the owner would most probably curse awhile then pull the darned plants out. With ours on the north side we are able to use them as partial shade for small azalea plants, another plant that needs monthly iron.

IN MARCH THE poinsettias will call for cutting back. After they have dried, a task that calls for a couple of weeks, they may be put in water, preferably in a bucket, and kept there until the eyes begin to show life. We have had splendid results, when they have dried, by planting them directly in prepared soil with between three and four eyes below soil level.

In past years we have seen many cases where the bare stick has been planted upside down. To obviate this it would be well if you study the eyes on each stalk before planting. The half round part of the small eye should be downwards and the straight, very slightly serrated part upward.

IN THE PAST we have transplanted old roots of poinsettias but have had only minor result. We have no kick whatsoever about are showing of both deep-red and pink poinsettias, grown on the north exposure; many of the pinks are eight foot high.

When planting the new stalks bear in mind that they have to go through summer's high temperature. If your conditions are such that you cannot plant on the north side you should keep on hand sufficient burlap, canvas or date fronds to establish a shade for all your young poinsettias; without this shield your results will be little to brag about. COMPANIES SEEK RATE SUSPENSION

Faced with a $15,000,000 increase in wholesale rates for out-of-state gas, Southern California gas companies today asked the Federal Power Commission to suspend the price rise for the full period of five months provided by the Natural Gas Act.

At the same time, the companies requested early hearings so that the full subject of the increase can be considered by the FPC before the suspension period expires on July 12.

IN A LETTER addressed to the Federal commission, attorneys for Southern California Gas Co. and Southern Counties Gas Co. stated that the two companies were making the request in the interests of two and a quarter million retail gas customers in the Southland.

Action of the local gas companies came as the result of a filing by El Paso Natural Gas Company with the Federal Power Commission for an increase in its wholesale gas rates, $15,000,000 of which would be charged to the Southland companies. The El Paso company supplies 70 per cent of the gas used in Southern California.

UNDER THE RULES of the Federal Power Commission, the proposed new rates would go into effect, subject to later review, five months after the time of the filing if the Commission by that time has not set a hearing date.

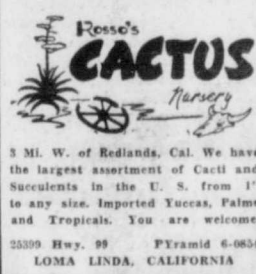

The money involved in the proposed increase is impounded awaiting hearings and final Commission decision in the matter.

"Electrical utility construction is expected to exceed two billion dollars for the third successive year in 1959," A. L. Berg, president of the Southern California Chapter, National Electrical Contractors Association said today.

"In addition," Berg said, "total construction in 1959 will pass the 50 billion dollar mark for the first time in history, in the opinion of both government and conservative private market and statistical experts."

"Public spending is expected to provide the main part of the 1959 expansion in new construction," Berg concluded.

MARRIED SATURDAY at St. Theresa Catholic Church were Patrick McKenney and the former Tina Long. The young couple are living in Palm Desert. (Vic Culina Photo)

Junior Women to Collect Books For Boys' Club

Palm Springs Junior Women's Club is planning a book collection drive to start a library for the Boys' Club, and the first ones donated were on display when the Club met at the Desert Inn Tuesday evening.

Those assisting in the March of Dimes drive were thanked, and Geneva Watson was named second vice president, replacing Shirley Larson, who resigned from the Club.

It was announced that Dr. William C. Doust of West Los Angeles will speak on Child Psychology and the emotional development of children, at the next meeting on February 24. Members may bring guests to this meeting.

McKenney-Long Vows Recited in Mid-Afternoon Ceremony

A mid-afternoon ceremony at St. Theresa Church on Saturday united in marriage Tina Long, daughter of Mrs. Eunice Princehouse of Lynwood, and Patrick McKenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McKenney of Stockton.

Saying their vows before Father Michael O'Donohue, the young couple were attended by Bea Suttrous of Los Angeles, and Tony Maiona of Palm Springs. The bride wore a fitted sheath gown of white silk, with pleated bodice. A short veil was caught up by a seed pearl coronet, and she carried a white orchid with orange blossom streamers.

Around 35 attended the wedding and went on to Shermans for the reception which followed. Here the guests were offered a buffet and a wedding cake, topped by miniature bride and groom figures, was cut and served. The bride, a graduate of Compton Junior College, has been in charge of the accounting office for Southern California Telephone Co., for the past 11 years.

McKenney is a graduate of Loyola and Stanford, and is engaged in subdivision work, with offices in both Palm Springs and Indio. He is also associated with the Desert Neon Sign Co. of Indio.

The newlyweds are living in Palm Desert and plan a delayed honeymoon next week, that will take them to San Francisco, Phoenix and Dallas.

Hayride and Picnic on 14th Birthday

Hayrides are lots of fun as the Palm Valley School classmates of John Cross Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beck of 31-090 San Gabriel Circle, found out Sunday afternoon when they helped John celebrate his 14th birthday.

Leaving the Ranch Club in one of the club's haywagons the happy group sang songs as they made their way to the foot of the San Jacinto Mountains where they disembarked.

Firewood was gathered to build a fire and cook lunch of hot dogs, hamburgers and beans in true western style. Birthday cake and punch were served while the group sang "Happy Birthday."

Among those attending were Judy Brown, Bunny Hoffman, Andre Nemeroff, Margo de Santos, Nina Gluehroff, Alice Crocker, Paula Steinmetz, Jeff Isenagie, John Harnburg, and Briggs Bosworth.

McKenney is a graduate of Loyola and Stanford, and is engaged in subdivision work, with offices in both Palm Springs and Indio. He is also associated with the Desert Neon Sign Co. of Indio.

This has been a week of weddings... With both the Bennett and Oliver rites tomorrow morning... there have been many pre-nuptial affairs... It's been a week marked by the annual installation dinner for the Chamber of Commerce...

... with Village businessmen and their wives dancing and dining at El Mirador... the Around the World costume party at Racquet Club last night... that was a benefit for the Charlie Farrell-chairmanned March of Dimes... and Panhellenic's annual scholarship tea... It's been a week for golfing and sunning... for entertaining guests... and for doing committee work on the forthcoming WAIF Ball and Golden Nugget Ball... and the Book and Author's Guild...

There's been so much going on socially... that there haven't been enough nights to make one on the town... until just this week... Dropped in at Las Casuelas for one of our favorite Mexican dinners... complete with guacamole and Carta Blanca... and then to Chi Chi to catch Dorothy Shay's show...

This Dottie is even smoother than she was when she was here four years ago... when she made her last appearance at Chi Chi (she's Claud Sims' sister... and he and their mother were here at the time)... Nobody... but NOBODY... has ever managed to combine Park Avenue and the feudin', fussin' mountain country like this one... and she's looking great too... If you haven't heard the Park Avenue Hillbilly... you should... She's quite a gal...

Jack Dempsey (co-owner of the Howard Manor... and one of the famed sports figures of all times) is at the Manor for a short stay... and with him is one of his daughters Barbara McMillan... Dempsey arrived just one day after Dave and Annabelle Margolis, co-owners, returned by air from Honolulu... where they had been vacationing...

Famed hotelman Conrad Hilton... who brought the Malone house on Palm Desert Drive (it's quite a house... with five bedrooms, four baths... a swimming pool and sunken badminton court)... and has been coming down for weekends... has a simple answer to the question of why he bought a home in Palm Springs... "I like the wonderful sunshine... the mountains... the climate... and I particularly like the new golf courses"... is how he expresses it... and from a man like Hilton... who has been everywhere... that's better than lyrics...

The Ross Malones (he's president of the American Bar Association) left to fly to New York... after a week's stay here at Desert Isle... They came here with Mr. and Mrs. Foster Rhodes of Pasadena... It was a first visit in Palm Springs for Malone...

The Frank Ryans left yesterday for Asheville, North Carolina... to be with her mother who is ill... They expect to be away for several months...

Mrs. "Pappy" Boyington... wife of the famed Marine flyer... was among weekend guests at Howard Manor...

Footlights... who also maintain homes in Palm Springs... are busily working on the annual fabulous benefit to be held in the Coconut Grove of the Ambassador Hotel, February 27th... including Mrs. Paul William Lawrence, Mrs. Tony Whan (president), Mrs. Ronald Button, Mrs. William Bannerman, Mrs. Charles Sweet, Mrs. Lee Bering... Mrs. Harold Cooper, Mrs. Edward Shattuck, Miss Anna E. LaChapelle, Mrs. George Irwin, and Mrs. Paul Reynolds...

'Mr. Tennis' Visitor in Village

Victor Denny, known as "Mr. Tennis" in sports circles, is visiting in Palm Springs where he and his wife are staying at Oasis Hotel. The Denny's came here following the January 17th annual meeting of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association at White Sulphur Springs, when Denny was reelected president of the Lawn Tennis Association for a second term.

As they make their home in Seattle, they have many friends at the Oasis Hotel, and were met at the plane by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McCurdy, long time friends, and annual winter guests at Oasis. Denny's grandfather was the first settler in Seattle and built the first cabin there in November 1851, and thus founded the city of Seattle.

It is Denny's job, as president of the association, to choose the captain of the Davis Cup team, and this year it was Perry T. Jones the popular west-coast tennis enthusiast. Jones and the team are due back from Australia, where they won the Davis Cup for the United States, on February 2nd, and Denny will be at the plane to congratulate him and the team for winning. He also will be at a testimonial dinner being given for the players on February 3 in Beverly Hills hotel. From there the Denny's will return to Seattle.

HONOR GUESTS when Pat and Sue Raymond (center) entertained at Howard Manor, were her father Jack Durant and his bride, the former Grace Dorf. The noted entertainer is here for a visit with

Farewell Party Is Surprise

Over a hundred school friends gathered at the Good home on El Cielo Friday night for a farewell party, which was arranged as a surprise for Nanci Gardner. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gardner of 584 Plaza Amigo, she leaves today for San Diego State College, where she will major in music education the second semester.

Many of the young people at the party have been classmates since first grade, continuing through high school, and Miss Gardner plans to return here in June to take part in the graduation exercises.

Active in school affairs, she has held various class offices, and was a Palm Springs Deb. Last summer she made her debut at the Redlands Bowl in the lead role of "Pitt Sing" in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado". She has sung for many civic and social affairs in Palm Springs and was soloist at Palm Desert Community Church last summer.

A student of Wynne Hammond, Miss Gardner plans to continue voice study in San Diego, and hopes to go on to Juilliard School of Music in New York, when she completes her studies at San Diego State.

FRIENDS SURPRISED Nanci Gardner with a farewell party, wishing her well as she goes to San Diego to continue her music education. (Village Studio Photo)

SOIL, WATER MANAGEMENT TO BE DISCUSSED AT INDIO

Specialists from the University of California Agricultural Extension Service will open a six-week series of discussions on soil and water management at Indio High School Feb. 17.

Coachella Valley vegetable, citrus, grape, date and field crops growers were invited to attend the course, which will be presented in a series of two-hour evening meetings every Tuesday.

THE COURSE is presented with the cooperation of the United States Department of Agriculture and Riverside County agricultural officials.

At each meeting, scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m., a University of California specialist will present basic information for the first hour.

The remaining portion of the meeting will be spent in correlation of the information to practical application and a discussion period, according to Farm Advisor A. F. Van Maren.

INCLUDED AS A part of the Coachella Valley Evening School program, the course requires payment of a $2 admission fee at the first meeting.

Lecturing specialists and the subjects they will discuss are as follows:

Dr. F. T. Bingham, soils scientist, "Physical Condition of Soils," Feb. 17.

Dr. Roy Branson, extension soils specialist, "Soil As a Chemical Storehouse," Feb. 24.

DR. AL MARSH, extension irrigation specialist, "Fertilizers and Their Use," March 3.

Dr. Milton Fireman, extension soils specialist, "Water Quality; Salinity," March 10.

Dr. Bert Krantz, extension soils specialist, "Irrigation and Moisture Measurement," March 17.

Clyde E. Houston, extension irrigation and drainage engineer, "Water Tables and Drainage," March 24.

Interiors Cause Injuries

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The interior of today's car, with its steering wheel, doorknobs, dashboard, ashtrays and other protruding parts, is a major cause to injuries during collisions.

So says a research team from the Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering at the University of California at Los Angeles based on 10 years of study.

The researchers predicted a number of changes in automobiles to provide motorists with greater safety, including a retractable or collapsible steering column and the padding of interiors with foam plastic or some other such material.
